ANOTHER WELL IS STRUCK BY OZARK OIL & GAS CO.

A long-distance telephone message from L. E. Shanks of Cherryvale, Kas., drilling contractor for the Ozark Oil & Gas Co., informs Springfield stockholders that the last well drilled by the Ozark Oil & Gas Co., which was a "1,000-000-foot gasser," has developed into a small oil well. In this well the driller passed through 20 feet of oil sand and it is from this sand that the oil is coming up. Oil men acquainted with this territory state that the next well drilled by the company will show how large a flow of oil may be expected from this field. Several Springfield men are interested in the Ozark Oil & Gas Co.
